

Mieko Fritze Yoshino is a life partner/wife to Janolof Fritze. Mieko have been working together with Janolof as a director, coordinator and researcher. They have formed a great dream team and explored the world together. Miekos talents are many. She have the best eyes and surprise you with outstanding knowledge within design, fashion, and location scouting. Maybe one of her best talents is to find the right person or right face that makes your story stand out. And a bonus is her delicious cooking!